

Spend Summer 2010 in El Salvador!

2010 Program Dates: May 24 - August 2
Deadline to apply: March 1

CRISPAZ is a faith-based organization dedicated to building bridges of solidarity between the Church of the poor and marginalized communities in El Salvador and communities in the US and other countries through mutual accompaniment, striving together for peace, justice, sustainability, and human liberation.

Program fee of $2,200 covers all in-country transportation, housing, food, orientation, and spiritual and logistical support. Airfare not included. CRISPAZ can help you plan a fundraiser, too!

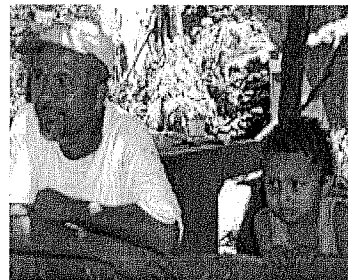

"This experience was what I expected and more... I feel like a tiny part of me is now Salvadoran."

Spend the summer in El Salvador as a CRISPAZ volunteer intern! Our Summer Immersion Program (SIP) is an intensive learning and service experience in a poor, rural community in El Salvador.

Living with and accompanying Salvadorans in their daily lives and work, you will contribute your skills to the community and learn and grow in the process. CRISPAZ provides orientation, intern placement, and facilitates in-depth reflection, analysis and evaluation throughout the program.

For more information, check out our website: www.CRISPAZ.org or e-mail us at: volunteer@crispaz.org